

Thello

International trains providing overnight service between Paris – Milan – Venice operated by TVT, the joint venture between Veolia Transdev and Trenitalia.

Valid from Dec 11, 2011 until further notice, subject to change

Benefits and Features

- Routes and Travel Times
Paris – Milan – Venice 13h 30m (train #221)
Venice – Milan – Paris 13h 30m (train #220)
- Intermediate stops at Padua, Vicenza, Verona, Brescia, Milan and Dijon
- Departure/arrival at Paris Gare de Lyon

Accommodations

- Thello will have sleeper coaches, restaurant car and couchette car
- Sleeper car compartments have in-room wash basins, two lavatories per car and are configured as:
Single
Double
Triple
All are available as a women-only compartment, men-only compartment or the entire compartment
- Couchette cars feature lavatories at either end of the car and offer:
6 berth compartments (mixed gender)
4 berth compartments (mixed gender or all women)
- A restaurant car operated by LSG Sky Chefs, will be available for on-board dinner and breakfast
- Wake-up service and morning coffee upon request with attendant in the evening

Conditions of Use

- Check-in procedures: No check-in procedures before boarding, ticket control and passport checks are done aboard the train
- Thello trains travel through Switzerland. Clients are responsible for necessary visa
- Advance booking: Thello trains can be booked up to 120 days in advance